

191. LOVE, O GREATEST BLESSING GIVEN

NAJVEĆI JE DARAK LJUBAV

1. Love, O great - est bless - ing giv - en By the Spir - it from a - bove! Had I
 2. Ho - ly Spir - it, Thou wast giv - en, That my faith but Christ would seek; Let my
 3. Love is gen - tle and un - self - ish, Love de - sir - eth not its own, Love is tongue of men and an - gels But with - al I had not love, I were faith in love find fruit - age, Love, the treas - ure of the meek. Love is not pro - voked to an - ger, Love for - gets the e - vil done. Truth de - but a tink - ling cym - bal, Naught but life - pa - tient, filled with good - ness; Love no en - lights it, false - hood nev - er; Love is pa - but a, I were but a tink - ling cym - bal, Naught but life - less, naught but life - pa - tient, love is pa - tient, filled with good - ness; Love no en - vy, love no en - lights it, truth de - lights it, false - hood nev - er; Love is pa - tient, love is pa - less, clang - ing brass, For tho' fair - est words were vy - ing doth know; Love is hum - ble and sub - tient in dis - tress; It en - dures all things and less, clang - ing, brass, For tho' fair - est, for tho' fair - est vy - ing doth know; Love is hum - ble, love is hum - ble tient in dis - tress; It en - dures all, it en - dures all spo - ken, Still my heart were dull and crass. miss - ive; Love the truth and light doth show.

 ev - er Keeps its faith and hope - ful - ness.

Still my heart were, still my heart Love the truth and, love the truth Keeps its faith and, keeps its faith