

137. O DELIV'RER FROM ALL BONDAGE

TI ŠTO RAZBI SVE OKOVE

p

1. O De - liv - 'rer from all bon - dage, Je - sus Christ, our Sav - ior 2. Thy good Fa - ther tru - ly wills it, That Thou end Thy work at
 3. O Thou al - so wilt per - fect us, For Thou true and gra - cious 4. O a - rouse our fee - ble pow - ers, From things earth - ly set them dear, With whom harm, con - tempt, dis - hon - or, Bring the joys of heav - en length; There - fore in Thee dwells the full - ness Of true wis - dom, love and art; We are in Thy care, O Sa - vior; Thou dost bear us in Thy free, That our plans and all our ef - forts May be hal - lowed, Lord, to near! We ask not for ease and pleas - ure As our strength, That of those whom He hath a - giv - en, None be heart! Though temp - ta - tions of men be Thee! Far from fear of men and wor - ry, And though a - por - tion in this life; What Thou deem - est nec - es - lost, though wide they roam; From their striv - ing, do Thou cross - es may op - press, Thou art still our might - y bove mere rea - son's scope, Past all dread of scorn and sar lead - y, Do while here we bear the strife.

mf

 Help - them Safe - ly to save the heav - 'nly home.
 suff - 'ring And Lift us by our all bless - ed tress!
 hope!

5. Let not those whom Thou hast purchased, Be the servants here of men;
 For, indeed, Thy great atonement, Cleanseth us from every sin.
 Pure and free of every blemish, And made more and more like Thee, Grace for grace from Thee receiving, Truly blessed will we be!