

I Am So Sad and Weary!

(134, 135, 138)

1. I am so sad and wea - ry! O Lord, look Thou on me!
 2. In Ke-dar's tents I'm dwell - ing, And that adds to my pain;
 3. Still here in Me-sech liv - ing, Where e - vil men hate peace,

My days are long and drear - y, I care not here to be.
 The foe my doom is tell - ing—My heart doth ache with - in.
 To Sa - tan hom-age giv - ing—Oh, how I seek re - lease!

4. My fatherland is heaven,
 A stranger I am here.
 What praise shall Thee be given,
 O God, when I am there!
